HUNTER LAING, THE FIRST EDITIONS

The First Editions range of single barrel expressions is always released at natural cask strength, and of course without colouring or chill filtration. As the name may suggest, each cask is carefully selected to evoke the qualities of a rare literary volume – those of character and collectability. Colour-coding on the labels denotes the particular regions the whiskies themselves are from and each bottle is individually numbered and presented in a gift tube. A “First Editions” bottling without doubt makes a valuable addition to anyone’s whisky library.

HUNTER LAING, HEPBURN'S CHOICE

The Hepburn's Choice range comprises whiskies bottled either from specially-selected single casks or from small batches of two to three casks. Always bottled at 46% alcohol and naturally without artificial colouring or chill-filtration.

Each bottling is chosen to showcase the specific characteristics of one of Scotland's whisky producing regions, or those of a distillery in particular. This range is named in honour of our directors' late maternal grandfather, William Hepburn, who travelled the globe with his job in the Diplomatic Service.

With a fine judgement honed at many embassy functions, Mr. Hepburn was a connoisseur of his homeland's whiskies:

with this in mind we believe these bottlings would indeed have been "Hepburn's Choice".

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, CAMPBELTOWN

Campbeltown whiskies are a curious mix. Characteristic includes a defined dryness with pungency, smoke and a solid salinity. Imagine a cross between the Lowlands and the Western Highlands with a pinch of salt thrown in for a good measure.

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, ISLANDS

A diverse whisky region, the proximity to the sea often proffers slightly salty, sometimes smoky whiskies. Balance is a recurring theme, sweetness and pungency in perfect harmony. A decidedly eclectic assortment of whiskies is to be found on the Islands.

SINGLE MALT | SCOTLAND, HIGHLANDS

As a very vague rule of thumb, the Highlands region is one of big-bodied whiskies, often peated and smoky and powerful. The Highlands is such a large, diverse region that is difficult to categorize their whiskies accurately.
